RICHARD "DICK" BRIDGE--The worker of the class--anything to be done Dick is right at it. Dick played basketball 4 years, softball 4 years, was on the track squad 2 years, sang in the chorus 4 years, played in the band 1 year, a great 4-H worker for 9 years, backbon of 2 class plays, was president of the Student Council in 1956, vice president of the class in 1954, president of the local 4-H Club in 1955, editor of the Lion, and a member of the Spotlight staff.

KENNETH "KENNY" BROWN--That quiet sense of humor--the lifter of our dragging spirits--Brownie, as we knew him, played basketball 4 years, softball 2 years, track 3 years, and was student manager one year. He sang in the chorus 4 years, appeared in 2 class plays, and worked hard on both the Lion and Spotlight staffs.

CLAUDE "GOLDY" CUNNINGHAM--The quiet one in the class. "Goldy" played basketball 4 years, softball 4 years, was on the track team 4 years, appeared in a class play, and was a hard working member of the Spotlight and Lion staffs.

WILLIAM "BILL" FAIRCHILD--The ball of fire--He always seemed to have enough energy to do a little more. Bill appeared in a class play, was stage manager one year, ran 2 years on the track squad, was top-notch student manager in his senior year, and served on the Lion and Spotlight staffs.

ALLEN HANNA--The slow, but positively sure type. Al played basketball 4 years, softball 4 years, and was on the track team 2 years. He performed in 2 class plays, sang 4 years in chorus, worked 4 years in the local 4-H Club, played in the band 2 years, and was a member of the Spotlight and Lion staffs.

NORMALOU UNGER--The lonely girl in the Senior class of 1956--Normalou, or as we called her "Lulu," sang her way through 4 years in chorus, worked 4 years in the 4-H Club, played in the band for 4 years, sparked the Sunshine Society for 2 years, was president of the class her last two years in school, assistant editor of the Spotlight, a member of the Lion staff, and took part in the plays.

NORMAN WARNER--The boy with more angles than a Geometry book. He used them all--Norman was in chorus 3 years, 4-H 2 years, band 1 year, and in 2 class plays. He also was on the basketball team 4 years, softball 3 years, track 3 years, president of the class in 1952, vice-president in 1956, and a member of the Lion and Spotlight staffs.

RICHARD "DICK" WINN--The boy with the big shoulders and blue eyes--Dick played basketball 4 years, softball 4 years, and was on the track team two years. He also lent his voice to the high school chorus 4 years and was in 4-H 7 years. Wait!! There's still more. He was a hit in 2 class plays, president of the class in 1954, president of the Student Council in 1955, vice-president of the local 4-H Club in 1955, editor of the Spotlight, assistant editor of the Lion, and secretary-treasurer of the class in his senior year.

Class History

One fine bright early autumn morning in the year 1944 we sixteen scared little children came into Mrs. Powlen's room: Nancy Beckley, Richard Bridge, Kenneth Brown, Melvin Bonnell, Harland Beecher, Robert Catron, Helen Elliott, Alice Nickels, Robert Lee Sterner, Gene Swank, Eileen Waddups, Richard Winn, Beverly Watts, Judith Ann Wiseman, Nancy Way, and Richard Adams. When we started our second year with Mrs. Powlen, we found we had lost Alice Nickels, Beverly Watts, and Judith Ann Wiseman. By this time we had lost our fears and were enjoying our work and classmates.

The third year of school we marched across the hall to Mrs. Winn's room. We were nine in number, since Eileen Waddups didn't return. During the summer we lost Melvin Bonnell and Harland Beecher. Gene Swank decided to stay another year with Mrs. Powlen. During the school year Allen Hanna and Keith Michael joined us, but Richard Adams left. The next year Shirley Hurlburt decided to stay back with Mrs. Winn another year, so she joined our class, along with Harold Titus and Beverly Howell, making us thirteen in number.

Then we moved across the hall to Mrs. Jones' room. Dorcas Burkhart, Ann Mae Howard, Rosie Howard, and Tom Shanks joined the class, but Harold Titus left. The second year with Mr. Jones we lost Anna Mae Howard, Rosie Howard, Tom Shanks, and Nancy Beckley. Robert Lee Sterner left us the following summer.

Up to the second floor we went, happy to have achieved so much learning. Beverly Howell moved away, Tom Shanks re-joined the class and Claude Cunningham, and Billy Fairchild entered later in the year.

During our eighth year we picked up Shirley Dunn, Bobby Spencer, and Norman Warner, and Keith Michael and Tom Shanks moved away. This was the year our basketball boys won the Northside Tournament, the County Junior High Tournament, and the Four-Way Junior High Tournament under the coaching of Mr. Hyman, so we felt pretty good.

When we were green freshmen, Shirley Dunn, Bobby Spencer, Nancy Way, and Shirley Hurlburt moved away. Now we were ten in number. We were guided by two sponsors, Mrs. Hight and Mrs. Fickle.

Darcas Burkhart moved to Twelve Mile, and Normalou Unger from Twelve Mile joined the class in March of the Sophomore year. Miss Hall helped us survive our trials this year.

The "Jolly Juniors," with the able help of Mr. Kitchell, sold Christmas cards, entertained the seniors at the Junior-Senior Prom, and completed our other activities. Shirley Hurlburt re-joined the class for two months; then she left us again. Helen Elliott entered a school in Colorado.

Now we are Sophisticated Seniors! Every year there is more to be done! Again Mr. Kitchell is helping us. When Robert Catron transferred to Logansport, it left us a graduating class of eight: Claude Cunningham, Allen Hanna, William Fairchild, Richard Bridge, Normalou Unger, Richard Winn, Norman Warner, and Kenneth Brown. With the senior trip our school days will be over. We leave with regret, but we are looking forward to our adventures out in the world.

Class Will

We, the Class of 1956 of Lucerne High School, of the County of Cass, and of the State of Indiana, being of sound mind and body, do hereby make, publish, and declare this as our last will and testament, hereby revoking all former wills, bequests, and devices of whatever nature or form heretofore made by us.

We, the Senior Class, do bequeath our good looks to the faculty and students whom we leave behind, so that the school may continue to enjoy these good looks after we are gone.

I, Allen Hanna, do bequeath my basketball suit to Chris Christiansen, so he can play his three remaining years.

I, Normalou Unger, do bequeath my ability to go steady and get engaged to Lois Cook, so that she may hook a man. To Dale Bridge I leave my ability to behave in chorus (he thinks this isn't possible) and to Sharon Purdue my ability to cut hair, so that she won't have it all cut off before she gets it the way she wants it.

I, Kenneth Brown, do bequeath my ability to get along with Mr. Bowen to Jim Robinson, so that he may become the star singer of Lucerne.

I, Billy Fairchild, hereby bequeath my ability to go steady to Gene Swank, so he can keep a girl and my job as student manager to Dave Young, so he can finish out his next two years washing gym clothes for the players.

I, Dick Winn, do bequeath my ability to grow whiskers to Arthur Newell, so that he may use the new razor he got for Christmas. To Darryl Myers I leave my ability to catch a girl, so he can increase his list from 5 to 613 and to Sandra Young my sharp elbows, so she can use them when she gets into tight spots.

I, Dick Bridge, do bequeath my ability to behave in class and in the assembly to Jim Robinson, who just might need it, before he's a senior and my ability to get fairly good grades to my brother, Dale, who will need them for his remaining two years.

I, Norman Warner, wish to leave the last seat in the assembly to any junior who may grab it and my ability to change seats in bookkeeping to Gene Swank, so that he may be well prepared.

I, Goldy Cunningham, do bequeath my ability to run the hundred yard dash to Bill Rance, who, I think, can do the job very well.

Signed: The Senior Class of 1956
By Normalou Unger Pres.

In witness whereof we do hereby set our hand and seal on this 3rd day of May, 1956.

Prophecy

As I was glancing through a magazine on a bright spring day in May of 1965, I saw something about the little village of Lucerne, where I used to go to school. It aroused my curiosity, so I read the article. Much to my surprise it stated that Lucerne was no longer a little village, but a city with a population of eight million. I decided right then and there to go back and visit my home town.

As I got off the train in Lucerne and started walking down Broadway, I noticed a cop having some trouble with the traffic out in the middle of the intersection. Lo and behold if that cop wasn't NORMAN WARNER! I decided to wait on the street corner and talk to Norman about the whereabouts of his classmates. When the busy part of his day was over, he quickly recognized me, and we had a lengthy chat. He said he was enjoying his evenings by staying at home with Janice, Tinna Marrie, and their son.

He said GOLDY CUNNINGHAM was getting along with the world pretty well these days. After spending three years in the army where he designed and built quite a few new army buildings, he was now in Washington designing a new White House, so he and his constructors can start building it soon.

Norman said that DICK WINN, after being editor of the Spot-Light decided he liked the job so well that he became the editor of the New York Times. Dick plays golf in his spare time. He has also become quite good and has a game scheduled soon with the ex-president of the United States, Dwight Eisenhower.

I also learned that the lonely girl of the class, NORMALOU UNGER, now Mrs. William Ashby, is living in Lafayette, Indiana. They have three children of their own, but if anyone can not find a babysitter some time, Normalou will be glad to keep the children for just a small fee.

While talking to Norman, I looked up and recognized the person coming down the street in a pilot's suit as KENNY BROWN. He stopped to chat with us awhile before taking off for France. Before he left, he took us over to Lucerne's famous airport to show us his plane. Kenny said he had just come from New York where he had stayed in the Hanna Hotel. ALLEN also has hotels all over the world. Much to our surprise, Kenny added that he had found BILLY FAIRCHILD as a bell-hop in the hotel.

I asked if they knew the whereabouts of DICK BRIDGE, the only senior of 1956 for whom we had not accounted. Norman said the last time he had heard, Dick and his wife were doing very well on a dairy farm in Wisconsin. Norman also added that the Bridges had six children, sixty cows, four dogs, twelve cats, and a few rats and mice.

After leaving Norman and Kenny, I felt as if I had had a reunion with all of the class of 1956.

Guess Who!!! Then check your answers on the last advertising page.

If Mother Only Knew

Presented by the Junior and Senior Classes of Lucerne High School

Mr. and Mrs. Maxwell are having their twentieth wedding anniversary, but Dad has forgotten all about it! Mrs. Maxwell bursts into tears when Dad is late for dinner. Aunt Mary and the three Maxwell children feel so badly they each call a florist and order flowers in Dad's name, and Betty Lou even makes reservations at an exclusive restaurant for her parents. Dad arrives and soon is reminded of the anniversary when flowers start arriving. Constance, the eldest daughter, reads the cards on the flowers and finds a large bouquet very lovingly addressed to her mother and signed "Dr. Gooch."

When Mother has lunch with Dr. Gooch the next day, the children become much disturbed, since they do not know that Dr. Gooch is a lady doctor with whom their mother went to college. She and her husband (also Dr. Gooch) have suggested Mr. Maxwell for an important job on the board of directors of the local college. Connie tells her father that their mother has been stepping out with an unknown doctor. When the male Dr. Gooch comes to the Maxwell home to interview Dad about the position, things begin to happen. He never gets a chance to explain his mission, and he gets a very strange impression of the Maxwell family. All things work out to a happy ending, however.
